*"I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord,
"plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a hope and a future" (Jeremiah 29:11).*

"Your arm is going to rot off"!

Recently one of the Rafiki children needed to wear an arm splint. On a trip to recheck it at the doctor's office, our young three-year-old boy was very quiet and somber (very unlike Samuel's normal outgoing self). After the exam, on the trip home, he started talking and was very joyful. When his Rafiki Mom asked why he had been so quiet before the visit, he said his new five-year-old Rafiki sister had told him, if he played with his arm splint his arm would rot and the doctor would have to cut it off! Now that brings back childhood memories of things brothers & sisters say.

How's Texas?

Are the bluebonnets still in bloom along the highways? We've had a second spate of rains for about two solid weeks, but it looks like it's about over now. Today we had sun, and three of the mamas and all twenty-one Rafiki children were at one of the gazebos. They were singing together as one mama played along on a keyboard. All the kids were clapping and dancing as children do. Doug took a break from his work for a few minutes to join in. We've had two separate episodes of long rains hit in the past month, and everyone is glad to see sunshine again. Even the Ibises and Egyptian Geese are making as much noise as possible (singing?).

Rafiki Coffee Schedule—July 2004:

Thank you for your steadfast prayers and support. We will be home in July to see you and share pictures and stories about Rafiki Village in Kenya. There are several coffees scheduled while we are stateside. Thank you to everyone who has expressed interest in having us. We will bring our children along to the coffees if your host requests. They will enjoy coming along or staying in Abilene to visit with friends and family.
